Accommodations

This is a serious racing boat, however the interior is kept as well as any cruising boat I have listed. The cabin sole is varnished teak and holly and is almost new, but shows as new. The entire interior was refurbished and was painted with white epoxy paint. The layout will house a crew during an overnight with berths for eight in the main saloon and the quarters. Forward of the main bulkhead is a china head and storage for the boats sails, running rigging and safety equipment. There is a galley with a sink and ice box amidships to port. Aft of the companionway on the center line is a large sit down Nav-station with repeaters and the electrical distribution panel.

Brokers Thoughts

This boat is not the typical racing boat that would in need of a top to bottom refit at this point. Between 2002 and 2004 this boat got a complete make over. In almost every respect she would pass for a 2-3 season old boat. Her owner has kept the boat in pristine condition. New fabric cushions are still wrapped in plastic. The interior is spotless, free of mold, mildew and diesel odors. Bottom, standing, running rig, interior, sails, engine all have been rebuilt or replaced. This boat is far more durable than the current crop of racers and is allot more stable than most of the newest one ton designs. If you sail in an area with a little extra breeze and enjoy winning races, this is the boat!
